

TEACHER’S HEALTH SCARE IS A LESSON IN STROKE AWARENESS

Dan Kenny is back to feeling good. He runs to stay in shape and enjoys playing and coaching hockey.

He has come full circle from a fateful winter weekend, out in the cold and miles from his home, when the symptoms of a stroke came on in a frightening way.

The high school teacher learned a valuable lesson that he now shares with others: Listen to your body.

This is his comeback story.
